HEAR SLAVONIC MASTERS

Ladies' Morning Musicals Will Give Review of Famous Composers Tuesday.

Never ask the hour—what is it to us
How Time darts out its treasures
The golden moments lent us thus
Are not his coin, but Pleasure's.
If counting them over could add to their bliss,
I'd number each glorious second;
But moments of joy are like Lullaby's kisses,
Too quick and sweet to be reckoned.
Then fill the cup—what is it to us
How Time his circle measures?
The fairy hours we call up thus
Obey no wand but Pleasure's!

Young Joy never thought of counting hours,
Till Care, one summer's morning,
Set up among his smiling flowers
A dial by way of warning.
But Joy loved better to gaze on the sun
As long as his light was glowing,
Than to watch with old Care how the shadow stole on.
And how fast that light was going.
So fill the cup—what is it to us
How Time his circle measures?
The fairy hours we call up thus
Obey no wand but Pleasure's!

Council of Jewish Women.

The first meeting of the Richmond section of the Council of Jewish Women was held February 2d in the Sunday school room of Temple Beth Abraham. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Edward N. Callach, Miss Florence Thalheimer, the vice-president, was in the chair. Miss Goldberger, field secretary of the national organization, made an address, and the section membership was increased from thirty to seventy-five. Committees will be appointed later, when the work of organizing has been perfected. The officers of the Richmond section are: Mrs. E. N. Callach, president; Miss Kate Thalheimer, vice-president; Mrs. Julius Edel, treasurer; Mrs. Isaac Krawitz, chairman of the Membership Committee. The secretary made a satisfactory report to the section.

The meeting was addressed by Miss Thalheimer, who spent last winter in Chicago and became familiarized with the work of the section in that city; by Miss Bertha Judah, the chairman of the Junior Section, of Louisville, Ky., who eloquently illustrated the success of the work in that city; by Mrs. Crane, of the Chicago section, who gave an account of the work in Chicago and of the organizations effected in Europe by Mrs. Hannah Solomon, president of the National Council, when she was sent as a delegate to the International Congress of Women at Berlin; by Miss Rachel Lovensheim, secretary of the Hebrew Aid Society.

The Rev. Dr. Callach explained the work of the section and illustrated it by readings from the year book of the Louisville, Ky., section, showing the splendid results that have been attained by the ladies of that city.

The work comes under the heads, educational, philanthropic and religious, and is carried on by five committees—Religious, Religious School Work, Philanthropic, Reciprocity and Junior Section. These committees are designed to cooperate with the various established charities and to promote their ends in every possible way.

The ladies feel greatly encouraged and gratified over the success of their meeting. The pleasure it afforded was much increased by the rendition of two vocal selections from Miss Gertrude Lichtenstein, who sang in splendid voice, and was accompanied by Madame Anna Holm-Lloyd. Miss Nina Gans played Schubert's Serenade with great power of expression. The time and place of the next meeting will be announced later.

The State secretary, Mrs. Clarence Burton, has been invited to meet with the circle. At this time the consecration service will be read and members are earnestly requested to be present.

Auxiliary Business Meeting.

An extremely interesting business meeting was held by the Auxiliary to the Virginia, Passenger and Power Young Men's Christian Association on Thursday, February 2d, eighteen members and three guests being present.

The president, Mrs. Craigie, was in the chair. After the meeting was opened in the usual manner, Mrs. Craigie gave her report of Miss Gould's visit. Miss Gould has offered to give teachers' Bibles to any young person connected with the company or the auxiliary who will commit to memory certain specified portions of the scriptures. This offer holds good for three years. Miss Gould wrote that she was delighted with her visit to Richmond and with all the attention the auxiliary had paid her.

MRS. EUGENE A. SMITH, of Christiansburg, Va.
Her marriage in October attracted a great deal of interest. Mrs. Smith will be remembered as Miss Edna Gertrude Adams, one of Pittsylvania county's most attractive young ladies.

Mr. Tubbs, who was present, reported that the Young Men's Christian Association membership now numbered 510, and that Miss Gould had promised the branch a handsome gift when they had reached the 600 mark. That the company had been camped in a room at the corner of Vine and Main Streets, to be used as a branch of the association, as the men of that district cannot make use of the Reservoir building. Small games and a case of books will be provided, as well as a correspondence table and toilet room. Some one will be in charge in order to change books at 12 noon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Branches of the auxiliary are also contemplated in Manchester and on Church Hill. A children's rally is expected to take place at the Reservoir on Sunday, February 12th, at 4 o'clock, in order to interest the children in Miss Gould's offer.

The different committees reported five new members, thirty-three visits to the sick, three new cases of illness and $10 disbursed in cases of necessity. The resignation of the secretary was accepted, and Mrs. George Whitfield, No. 116 North Third Street, was unanimously elected to fill her place.

Enjoyable Entertainment.

One of the most enjoyable entertainments given in the East End this season was a conundrum tea, which was given Tuesday night in the home of Miss Elizabeth Bates by the Lee Cook Young Women's Christian Temperance Union. The serving of the supper caused many surprised and much amusement, as the names of each entrée appeared in the form of a conundrum. A most enjoyable musical programme was well rendered. Misses Laura Atkinson, Viola Dacot and Helen Bass assisted Miss Bates in entertaining the guests. Mr. Adam Dacot was on hand, and with his many witty sayings and songs kept the merry party in a continuous good humor.

Star Social Club.

Miss Pearlle Gaines entertained the members of the Evening Star Social Club at her home Thursday evening from 8 to 12 o'clock. Flitch was the enjoyable feature of the evening. Among those present were Misses Oleria White, Alma Ennis, Irma Allen, Pearlle Gaines, Alma Alley and Messrs. W. Newsome, J. Patterson, J. McDonough, Ned Robinson, G. Munday, H. Hart, W. Spell, R. Sheton and W. Cook. Mrs. David Gaines chartered the young folks.

Benefit of Building Fund.

The lecture to be given by the Rev. Dr. W. W. Moore, of Union Theological Seminary, "A Ramble Through the Valley of the Nile," on the evening of February 16th, in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association, is looked forward to with no little pleasure, the reputation of the lecturer and the fact that the amount raised is to be devoted to the Church of the Covenant Building Fund, adding weight to other considerations. Patrons of the evening will be Mrs. J. Calvin Stewart, Mrs. George Randolph Cannon, Mrs. M. W. W. Woodward, Mrs. S. H. Hawes, Mrs. L. L.
